One of my favorite memories of Ifeanyi was at the ASA ball at First Baptist. He was dressed up, looked very sharp and had the biggest smile on his face. When I was able to speak to him, he was so proud to represent his home and his family. He represented you so well! He is the kindest person and very loving. Though we grieve his passing we rejoice he is with the Lord.

With all our love,
Reverend RJ Voorhees
First Baptist Tuscaloosa

Hey Ify, I wish you knew how badly I want to just be writing another card, to say something like happy holidays and see you soon. It's so hard to put to words how I'm feeling about you. I just keep remembering how you'd greet me - how you'd say my name. I just want to hear you call out again. I just want to hear your voice and talk about anything. It doesn't have to be important, I just want to know you're ok and going on to do amazing things. You were going amazing places. It's so unfair because you truly deserved so much more - you were going to save lives and now we can only do our best to bring your light to the world on your behalf. No one can replace how you say hey. I'll never forget it. So, Hey Ify. I'm proud to say I know you.

Love, Spencer

I never had the privilege and honor to meet you but from all the stories and testimonies, I could not help but be touched and moved by such an impactful legacy you've left behind.

May your Soul find refuge in the bosom of our Savior and His Mother Mary! Rest in Perfect Peace! Amen!

Well done friend!

I know you had much more to give and do.

But I know you are proud of what you achieved. I know you are in heaven and one day I will see you again

Bro, I know you are happy whenever you are cause you were such a sweet soul.
You helped me settle in here when I had no guardian to help me. I really appreciate you and I just want you to know that you were loved and cherished so much. REST WELL ☺

Ifeanyi,

I remember the first conversation we had, in the car going to Moundville for a volunteering event. Even from that first conversation, I knew that you were such a kind, intelligent, and dedicated individual. Your passion for service and genuine love for people was contagious, and every project I saw you pour your entire heart into pushed me to work harder too; even without effort, by just existing as your honest and pure self, you were lifting people up and inspiring them to be their best selves. I'm so grateful for the short time we had together in CKI, for how you lit up projects and meetings and gave your everything to bettering the club and the community. You had so many plans as VP... you're irreplaceable and so, so, so loved. I will miss you immensely.

-Anna Holmes ♡

I wish we had done this when you were alive. I wish we had gathered together, sat down like this, and just told you how awesome you are. I wish we had done a count of how many volunteering organizations you are committed to and laughed while saying words like, "You are such a hard worker". This is hard, I swear. I saw you that same week and all I said to you was small talks about your name, your training. Why didn't I tell you about how much I admired you, how much light you've brought to AS A? Please live on, live on wherever you are. You have to live on.

No words can explain Ifeanyi, you had to have met him. I feel sorry for anyone who never got the chance. The most purest of hearts. He lived a life of Christ. I just wished to have met him sooner.

Till we meet again - Ekpele

I don't know where to start.

I was driving back from PA when I heard the news. I was so excited to meet all the new R's. Hearing what I have heard about you, you truly were special. An angel amongst us. There hasn't been a night where I haven't thought if I had been back sooner, that things could be different. It really stinks I never got the chance to meet you. Rest in Peace.

Every time I met (Henry), which was a few times by the way, he always wore a welcoming and brilliant countenance. Hey man

Heyman!

I will forever keep your dynamic and unique aura in my memory bank.

Love You Man!

Life's desire to serve was infectious! Each event he participated in during the 2022-2023 school year gave so much to the Tuscaloosa Community and showed his fellow UA students why sewing was his passion.
I personally will remember his smile and energy he brought to each Al's Pals event - recruiting others or with our school community.
Tuscaloosa and University are so better for his time and service to our community.
May God bless you during this time.

Dear Ifeanyi,

You are a beautiful Spirit and I will miss you.

May Light surround your path as you journey on to heaven!

It was such a blessing to know and work with you, albeit for less than a year.

Thank you Ifeanyi, for your kindness, and your exemplary life.

2 Samuel 14:14 "We must all die, we are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. But God will not take away life, and He devises means so that the banished one will not remain an outcast."

Psalm 30:5 "...weeping will endure for the night, but joy comes with the morning."

I feel so sad when I think of this tragedy. But God does not take life. He gives life, salvation through His beloved Son Jesus. Ify knew Jesus, loved Jesus, and accepted this gift of eternal life that God made possible through His son Jesus. Because of this my weeping in our earthly hearts will endure for the night, but our joy from this spiritual hope will come in the morning.

didn't know ity very long, but I was blessed to experience his kindness & to see his joy. Every time he texted me or emailed me, he'd say, "Hi Hope, this is Heanyi Anyoky insert waving emoji", and it made me smile every single time.
I am so thankful for the time I got to spend with him even though it wasn't enough. Thank you for allowing your son to come here & show everyone what true joy & a servant heart looks like. I am so sorry for your loss, I will be praying for supernatural peace & healing.

You were such a blessing to everyone. All I can just write is that your soul continue to rest in perfect peace.

You are rare and the last of your kind.

Rest well!!!

IFEANYI,

I really enjoyed getting to know you over the past month. Each conversation we had was truly a pure and joyful experience. The impact you had on me lasted longer than each encounter. you are loved and I know you are smiling down on us.

Such a Kind,
talented Young man. Loved by many students and our church.

The first time I met Ify was during move in.
He had the kindest &
smiles, and every time I could help him write an essay or talk about life we would. Late nights in the study room working on things were really special. He will be missed, but was really loved by everyone who met him.

- C. Furzenberry

One of the fondest memories I have with Ify is the many talks we would have regarding our blount essays. We would sit in one of the classrooms and start talking about our different perspectives on the literature. We would start with talking about Blount then we would end talking about the amazing things happening in each others life. He was such a great friend

Love,

Ifeanyi,

In such a short time with us you made your presence felt. You were loving, caring, and always ready to serve. The week you left us I & Chris saw you ride past us with your bicycle, and even after saying hello, you stopped, waited for us to come by and asked about our well being!

This life is not balance! Here today gone tomorrow! But who are we to question God!??

Rest on Ifeanyi!

Chioma Akor.

Till we meet again,

Dear Ife's Family,

I only met your son once & he impressed me with his respectful, kind brilliance. Thinking of you all. He is a shining light to all of our children

A Mom of Ife's friend.

By the way I met at a MAPS meeting in the Student Center. Our interaction was nothing out of the ordinary. His house is up on a hill to be deeply loved for what we have. I miss you a lot.

Ifeanyi served on the CRI board with me this year. His kindness and willingness to lend a hand was so prevalent. He was always so kind and helpful when I asked questions about anything.
His want to serve was infectious and we will greatly miss him.

Dearest Ifeanyi,

I will miss playing v-ball w/you. Your service was the best.

Rest in peace, Sweet boy!!!
I will continue hoping to wake up from this dream.

Ifeanyi always had good questions to ask. He never spoke up for attention, but because he truly cared. He will be missed and I have prayed that God welcomes his soul to the eternity in Heaven that he deserves. God loves you.

Ify was in my Bible study at church, and no matter how he felt, he always came and was a joyful presence. He often had something wise to say, and always something encouraging.

One day, I ran into Ify at school, and we went to eat lunch together. Throughout our time at the dining hall, he saw so many people he knew, until we were sitting with about 10 other people. During lunch, he listened to ~~one~~ ^{of the} girl's talk about something she was struggling with, and he shared the Gospel and the hope of our Lord so clearly. That encounter embodies how Ify lived at Alabama. Always welcoming, Always hopeful.

Keanyi was my neighbor for our first year. He was always welcoming and greeted me with a smile every time we passed.
His presence made my dorm feel like a home.

Dear IFe,

Thank you so much for being such an intentional friend, even after meeting only once. Everytime we walked into class together my day was brightened. You were and still are truly a light for me Lord. Someone who encouraged & motivated me. I will see you again! - Frances ♡

Rolling around on the grass with IFE and friends on the quad

We were blessed to know Ipeanyi and have him on our Burke RA team this year. He always had a smile on his face. May God bring comfort and blessings to you and your family.

Dear Family of Ifeanyi,
This hope & life. Praying for you.

His reputation was one of highest honor.

Although I had never spent time with him personally, every person who had ~~told me~~ talked with me about him helped me feel I did.

He was such a joyful servant, an excellent student, a lover of God, and a young man who was so honorable. You did an amazing job training him into an incredible young man. Whoever believes in me will live

Psalm 29:11 is my Mishka-Sullis

Praying for you. Praying for the dear Ifeanyi family.

Ifeanyi today marks exactly one year when you helped me carry my luggage into my uber when you did not even know me. You wholeheartedly helped me and I said thank you. We met again on campus several times then we started working together on the eboard of ASA. What happened to the Ghana jolly rice you wanted to come eat when you return to Tuscaloosa?
Fore thee well my friend
Ifeanyi.

Gone too soon!!! Ikú ò bá gbowó à bá fun lónwó, Ikú ò bá gberan a bá ràgbò fun. You are loved Ifeanyi Anyoku and you'll forever be in our hearts. The Nigerian community at UA misses you deeply. Your departure leaves us confused with so many questions. It is with a heavy heart we say goodbye. The lives you have touched speak volumes of the life you lived. At 18, years old, you were a force to be reckoned with both academically and socially. Eniire 10. Erin wo!!! Ajanaku sun bi oké. Nigeria lost a giant because that is what I believed you to be. I pray that God will give your loved ones the strength to carry on and He will comfort them always. Amen, in Jesus name. Rest in the bosom of our most gracious savior.
